

Old Town Farmer's Market

First Saturday of the month through May

The market features more than 100 local growers and specialty food producers. The library has a table once a month to promote library programs and services.

Family Read Aloud Nights

Dates vary throughout the year

The library invites families of pre-kindergartners through 1st graders from each hosting school in the Scottsdale Unified School District for a night of stories, laughs, and dinner. These outreach programs visit four Title I SUSD schools to promote our services and show kids how much fun reading can be. The library provides free pizza and drinks to all attendees as well as a free book to each child. This program is supported by the Friends of the Scottsdale Public Library.

NOAHfest

January 2024

NOAHfest, presented by Molina Healthcare and Humana, will offer FREE fun for the whole family with carnival games, including an inflatable life-size corn maze, football toss, and axe throwing. The event also features health information, routine screenings, and the opportunity to meet NOAH Cholla Health Center providers.

Parada del Sol

Typically held in early February

The library, along with other Community Services departments, walks in the annual parade.

All Things Senior Expo

Wednesday, February 21 from 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

The "All Things Senior" Expo & Tradeshaw will provide information about healthcare, senior housing, municipal services, recreation, technology, transportation, and entertainment to those over 50. In addition to a wide variety of resources, the event features free health screenings and educational opportunities.

Scottsdale Family ArtsFest at SkySong

Spring 2024 (Date TBD)

This event is a free festival of creativity that includes performances, interactive demonstrations, and creative interventions. There will be performances and art exhibitions delivered by Scottsdale Unified School Districts, family-friendly art activities, and interactive demonstrations.

City Earth Day Event

April 2024

The City's annual Earth Day event has sustainability-focused educational booths and information about the city's eco-friendly initiatives.
